

CADAAD 2024: Extended deadline for abstracts and panel proposals

We are pleased to announce that the next Critical Approaches to Discourse Analysis Across Disciplines (CADAAD) conference will be organised and hosted by Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań

The conference will take place from 10-12 July 2024.

This year's conference theme is Borders and boundaries in/across discourses. With the invasion of Ukraine, Europe has yet again seen people moving across borders in search for security and new life from yet another direction. Around the world, state borders are being fought over and people are more mobile than ever, including war, climate change, poverty, and post-COVID mobility.

The conference theme understands borders in a much broader way, including identity (self/other, us/them), time (past/present), politics (left/right, mainstream/extreme), and society (public/private), as well as borders within and between academic fields (quantitative/qualitative, interdisciplinarity) and those that exist between research and praxis.

As with previous CADAAD conferences, we are also happy to see abstracts of discourse analytical work from any field that looks at, among others:

- Post/de/anti-Colonialism
- Corporate and organisational communication
- Culture, cultural studies, and cultural promotion
- Education
- Environment and environmentalism
- Mental or physical health
- Gender & sexuality
- News and (social) media analysis
- Protest and social movements
